About this book

This book is from Enhanced Lifestyles.

This book is about your rights.

Rights are things everyone should be able to

- get

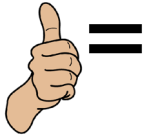

- have

- do.

How we protect your rights

We follow the law about rights.

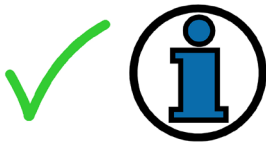

We make sure

- you get fair services

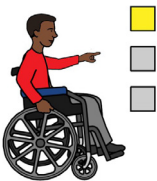

- you are treated with respect

- you get clear information

- you feel safe

- you can choose what you want or need

- your information is private
 - private means we will not share it

- you know how to give feedback and make a complaint.

Our ideas about diversity

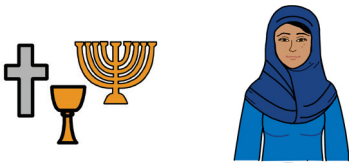

Diversity means difference.

For example, people might have different

- family backgrounds

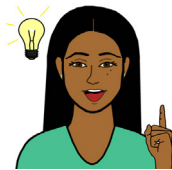

- religions

- languages

- ideas.

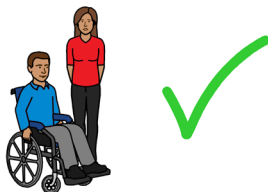

We think diversity

- is good

- makes our service better.

We respect your different needs.

For example, you can

- get information in your language

- practise your religion

- have relationships of your choice.
